PASTOR JOE JACOBS

Superintendent Amuwo Odofin DCC

Topic: It is well

Preacher: Pastor E.K Oluwatuyi
(Superintendent Spring Of Life District)
Text: 2 Kings 4: 23 - 30

The only son of the rich woman that built an apartment for Elisha died. He cried 'my head my head' and died. The mother did not tell the husband that his son is dead but she prepared to travel to meet prophet Elisha to report the matter. So her husband asked her, why are you going to meet the prophet today? It is not a Sabbath day or new month. She responded that it is well and left without giving full explanation. Look at this couple. They had trust and understanding between them. The man trusted his wife.

As she approached, Elisha saw her from afar and sent his servant to meet and greet her. Think about it. That you are going to meet the President and seeing you from afar he sent his ADC to meet you and inquire if there is no problem. This is a great demonstration of honour to the visitor. Some people you will visit them but they would tell those indoors to tell you they are not around. It is because you have no honour with them.

When I was reading this woman's story, God showed me she had great honour with the man of God and it's because she also honoured the man of God. The bible says she was the one who approached Elisha and pressed him to turn into her matrimonial home to eat and refresh himself before continuing on his journey. She did regularly seeing that the man of God was tired. She offered unsolicited help and eventually built a penthouse for the man of God to live in.

Do you honour God and his servant? Some will see their pastor passing by and they would start gossiping about him or her. This woman did not do such. She took care of the man of God. Read your bible very well, Jesus went to the house of people that feed him and gave of their substance to him. He went to Mary's house. He went to Lazarus' house and played with them there. The anointing of God will flow to you if you take care of his anointed.

When the woman eventually got to Elisha he asked her is all well, she said it is well. Was all truly well? Her son was dead! Yet she said with faith in God that all is well. I was with a man just this last week, who was in trouble and he was crying that "God I will not serve you again. You disgraced me. I will not serve you again." I was just looking at him in shock and disbelief. This woman was not like that. She was trusting in God and stubborn in faith. Elisha followed her to her house, laid on her son's corpse, prayed, his body warmed up and he revived. Her childlessness was reversed again because she believed so and said so.

Whatsoever you think and say about yourself that happens to you. If people ask you how far with you? Always respond that it is well. Respond with a good word about yourself. If you are always thinking trouble and problem it will happen to you. Job said 'what I fear has happened to me.' Can you imagine that? That all those terrible things that happened to him, are things he had been thinking about and dreading in his heart. How can you be thinking that all your children will die one day? Or that terrible sickness will come upon you?

Many Christians are like this. Build good thoughts about yourself and reject negative thoughts. It is the good thought and statement of the rich woman that happened to her. She said it is well and her matter became well. Abraham about to sacrifice his son to God said God shall provide another animal for sacrifice and God did just that. Many Christians are been terrorized by evil visions from prophets. Fear has filled their hearts because of this vision and they are living under bondage. Reject evil vision. If any prophet walks up to you to give you a bad vision, discard him and get away from there immediately.

Jesus said 'my peace I give unto you not as the world gives and takes it back.' The bible also says 'rejoice in the Lord and I say again, rejoice!'

Prayer

O Lord delete all the negative thoughts I have been having about myself.
